

Name:

WritingWorkbooks.com

The Ancient Greeks

D'Nealian Print

1. The Greeks built splendid temples to house their gods.
2. The Parthenon was one of the finest temples in Greece.
3. Each god had special powers which visitors prayed for.
4. Zeus was the god of the sky.
5. Ares was the god of war.
6. Aphrodite was the goddess of love.
7. The original Olympic sports were invented by the Greeks.
8. They had over two hundred different sports festivals.
9. Greek warships were long, narrow and fast.
10. Sea battles were fought by ships crashing into one another.

The Greeks built splendid temples
to house their gods.

The Greeks built splendid temples
to house their gods.

The Parthenon was one of the finest
temples in Greece.

The Parthenon was one of the finest
temples in Greece.

Each god had special powers to be prayed for.

Each god had special powers to be prayed for.

Each god had special powers to be prayed for.

Each god had special powers to be prayed for.

Zeus was the god of the sky.

Zeus was the god of the sky.

Zeus was the god of the sky.

Zeus was the god of the sky.

Ares was the Greek god of war.

Ares was the Greek god of war.

Ares was the Greek god of war.

Ares was the Greek god of war.

Aphrōdite was the goddess of love.

Aphrodite was the goddess of love.

Aphrodite was the goddess of love.

Aphrodite was the goddess of love.

The original Olympic sports were invented by the Greeks.

The original Olympic sports were
invented by the Greeks.

There were over two hundred
different sports festivals in Greece.

There were over two hundred

different sports festivals in Greece.

Greek warships were long,
narrow and very fast.

Greek warships were long,

narrow and very fast.

Sea battles were fought by
ships crashing into one another.

Sea battles were fought by
ships crashing into one another.

